

POWER TO PASS BANKING LAW

Bill For a Constitutional Amendment Passed the Senate Today.

APPORTIONMENT TASK

Fight Promised On the Bill Prohibiting Insurance of State Property.

MANY BILLS ARE PASSED

Madison, March 1.—The bill permitting township insurance companies to do business in only two counties other than those adjoining the town in which it is organized and not more than eight counties in all passed the senate today.

The bill for a constitutional amendment giving the legislature power to pass a general banking law was also passed.

A fight is promised on the law prohibiting the insurance of state property which was put over until next Wednesday.

A large number of bills were disposed of in both houses but few of them were of general importance.

Apportionment a Task.

Madison, March 1.—How to cut down 102 assembly districts that are claimed by the various members of the joint committee on apportionment to the 100 districts allowed under the law, is the task that now confronts the senators and assemblymen who have the apportionment subject in charge. The joint committee held a meeting late yesterday afternoon. The ten sub-committees made their reports. When the claims of all of the subcommittees was summed up it was found that they asked for 103 assembly districts, three more than they can have.

The joint committee on charitable and penal institutions this afternoon decided to report for the passage of Assemblyman Jones's bill providing for the admission of children under three years of age to the State School for Dependent Children at Sparta. The bill was debated all of the afternoon. Under the present statute children under three years of age cannot be received at the school.

Among the bills that were passed in the assembly was one that prohibits the forging of railroad passes and tickets. Among those that were killed is a measure that was designed to give wardens the power to kill if necessary during escapes and disturbances in prison.

The bill to prevent the sale of beer near the capitol, church and school houses also was killed, while the judiciary committee reported for indefinite postponement the Bicycle Side path bill, and also the bill providing for the adoption of the Torrens system of registration.

Mrs. Nation Again in Jail.

Topeka, Kan., March 1.—Mrs. Nation is again in jail, having surrendered soon after her return from Peoria and the bond that she gave before she left Topeka has been cancelled.

THINK THAT AGUINALDO IS DEAD

Growing Evidence That the Filipino Leader Was Killed Some Time Ago.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—Army officers who have returned from Manila are of the opinion that Aguinaldo is dead. The personal correspondence from officers who are still there, including letters from General McArthur indicate that such is the opinion in the Philippines. It has been nearly a year since there was any direct information from Aguinaldo or any indication of his presence or influence upon the insurgents.

At that time it will be remembered, a horse was overtaken and captured by United States troops, and the saddlebags were found to contain many valuable papers which bore evidence of being the official or personal property of Aguinaldo. The rider of the horse was known to have been wounded.

To what extent however it was impossible to ascertain. He had been carried off by the natives and the supposition is that this rider was the Filipino leader.

Nothing more has been heard of Aguinaldo. All trace of him was lost.

SEVEN VIOLENT DEATHS.

A Day's Record of Fatal Accidents in Chicago.

Chicago, March 1.—Struck by the counter weights of an elevator, Mabel Preston, a nurse at the Michael Reese hospital, met instantaneous death at that institution. Two others—men—were also victims of elevator fatalities. Four more persons lost their lives, making a total of seven violent deaths for the day. The record: Mabel Preston, instantly killed. John Weller, fell seven floors through an elevator shaft to the ground in a building at Kinzie and Clark streets; killed instantly. Louis Friedman, caught between the wall and the car of a freight elevator in a building at 184 Quincy street; received injuries from which he died after a half-hour's suffering. Unidentified man, run down and killed by a Grand Trunk train. Matthew McDonough, killed while stealing a ride on an Illinois Central train near Martenson station. John Light, 10 years old, accidentally run down and killed by a furniture team. Stanislaus Willand, 2 years old, played with matches while alone in the house; found by his mother fatally burned; died an hour later.

COOPER MAY GO TO PORTO RICO

Trip of a Sub Committee Appointed to Investigate, Will Be Authorized by Congress.

Washington, March 1.—Most of the members of the Wisconsin delegation will leave for their homes soon after the adjournment of congress on Monday. Senators Spooner and Quarles will remain to attend the special session of the senate, and several of the members of the insular committee will visit Porto Rico for two or three weeks. A resolution authorizing this trip has been introduced in the house and a similar resolution is pending in the senate for a subcommittee of that body to visit Porto Rico.

Messrs. Esch and Otjen will leave for Wisconsin within two or three days after adjournment, and the other minor will follow within a week. Mr. members with the exception of Mr. Minor and his family will remain here on account of his children being in school.

FERRILL PAYS THE PENALTY.

Murderer of Messenger Lane Dies in the Electric Chair.

Columbus, O., March 1.—Rosslyn H. Ferrill went to the electrocution chair shortly after midnight with a song on his lips. There was no trace of terror in his face, and no evidence of regret that he was to die. He walked with head erect and aided the guards and prison physicians to adjust the straps about his body and legs. It was the most remarkable exhibition of nerve ever witnessed at the prison. At 12:09 this morning the usual current of 1,750 volts was turned into his body. The first contact was for seven seconds and was repeated with slightly decreased voltage after a very brief interval. The electrocution was successful in every way and the features were but slightly disfigured by the current.

Editors Elect Officers.

Madison, Wis., March 1.—The State Press association yesterday morning elected the following officers: President, Ed. L. Luckow Baraboo; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Flora B. Ginty, Chippewa Falls; vice presidents, Mrs. Adelaide King of Waupun and Mrs. Sturdevant of Oshkosh.

NEBRASKA PENITENTIARY BURNED; LOSS OVER QUARTER OF A MILLION

Convicts Were All Safely Gotten Out of the Prison and Guarded by State Militia—Only One Attempt to Escape.

Lincoln, Neb., March 1.—A fire, which started in the living apartments of Warden Davis of the state penitentiary shortly after midnight, has destroyed the entire main building, together with the east and west cell-houses adjoining. The big shops operated by the convicts are intact. As soon as the fire became serious Warden Davis gave orders that the convicts, over 300 in number, be taken from their cells. They were marched out in order under double guard, and stationed in the prison yard. There was no attempt at mutiny or even disorder. Double guards armed with rifles were placed on the stockade walls, with strict orders to allow none to escape.

As a further precaution Company F of the Nebraska national guard was ordered out to assist in preventing an outbreak.

At 2:30 a. m. Warden Davis sent a request to the chief of the Lincoln police asking for the assistance of every available policeman. They were soon on the way by special train.

From the business center of Lincoln to the penitentiary is nearly four miles, and with rough roads the department was over a half hour in making the trip, so that the fire had gained great headway before water from the steamer was turned on. The present state penitentiary building was built in 1876 at a cost of $300,000.

One life convict broke from the cell guards and dashed back into the cell house. The prisoner had been morose and had scarcely spoken for years. The city fire department managed to save the east cell and it is being fitted up today to accommodate the convicts. The legislature now in session will appropriate money to replace the burned structure.

The loss will be over a quarter of a million dollars.

HOEHNADDEL WANTS TO MEET FARMERS

Manager of the Proposed Canning Factory Ready to Make Contracts for Farm Produce.

On Monday night P. Hohenadel and his superintendent will be in the city and will make their headquarters at the Holms seed store on South Main street. The object of their visit to the city at this time is to meet the farmers of the surrounding country and ascertain how much of an acreage they can count on to supply the canning factory for the canning season.

They would like to make contracts at this time for 400 acres of cucumbers, 400 acres of cabbage and from 1,500 to 2,000 acres of sweet corn.

It is absolutely necessary that they should secure this acreage before they close up their contract with the city to build their canning factory. This is really the only question yet unsettled in regard to the canning factory being built. The committee in charge of the subscription list has secured within $200 of the required amount and this can be raised if the balance of the plan is a success.

Arrangements for machinery and other fittings have been made and all that is now left is to get the farmers to raise the produce. They will be at Helm's store on Monday afternoon and Tuesday and after that will ride through the country visiting the farmers and closing up their contracts.

It is hoped that all of the farmers that can conveniently do so will meet Mr. Hohenadel next Monday and Tuesday.

DR. G. E. SEAMAN APPOINTED.

Succeeds Hamilton as Assistant Surgeon of the First Regiment.

Milwaukee, March 1.—Dr. Gilbert E. Seaman of this city was yesterday appointed assistant surgeon of the 1st Regiment, Wisconsin National guard, to succeed Captain Edward Hamilton resigned. Mr. Seaman has a good military record, having been assistant surgeon, with the rank of captain in the Fourth Wisconsin volunteers while that regiment was in the Spanish-American war service. Later he went to the Philippines from where he returned a little over a year ago, after serving in the army there.

BLAMES PILOT AND CAPTAIN.

Coroner's Jury at San Francisco Takes Summary Action.

San Francisco, March 1.—The coroner's jury heard the testimony of Pilot Jordan, R. P. Schwerin of the Pacific Mail and others concerning the recent wreck of the Rio de Janeiro. No new facts were elicited. The jury returned a verdict that Mrs. S. B. Wakefield and others came to their death "through asphyxiation from submergence, caused by criminal negligence on the part of both Captain Ward and Pilot Jordan," and continued the verdict "we most strenuously censure the Pacific Mail Steamship company for employing incompetent Chinese crews for saving human lives." The coroner's jury concluded its verdict somewhat remarkably by extending its "heartiest good will" to Second Officer Coghlan for his "heroic actions" at the time of the wreck. Coghlan is a son of Commander Coghlan of "Hoch der Kaiser" fame. The official investigation by government inspectors will begin today.

British Steamer Sinking.

London, March 1.—The British vessel Indiana from Venice was sighted off Orthing this morning in a sinking condition.

ERRORS FOUND IN BADGER SURVEYS

Declares There Are 250,000 Acres, Containing City of Ironwood, Not Included in Either State.

Madison, Wis., March 1.—According to E. D. Peake of Johnstown, Grant county, there are eleven townships containing something over 250,000 acres of valuable land lying between or along the boundaries between Upper Michigan which are not included in the State of Michigan nor in the state of Wisconsin. This plan includes the city of Ironwood, Mich., the rest of it lying between Paint river and the Brule.

Mr. Peake who is an employee of the senate has looked up all of the records in connection with this matter and finds that this land in question was once a part of the state of Michigan, but when the state of Wisconsin was laid out it was not included in the survey.

If this is true and Mr. Peake has carefully compiled the records, which seem to show that it is so, then it is probable that every land title in that section is void, that all official acts are void, and even marriages performed by officials residing in this district, which has no rightfully elected or appointed officers of any kind, are open to question.

It is easily seen that many complications will arise from this peculiar situation. It is altogether probable that the matter will be laid before the legislature in some form and that an official investigation will be ordered.

CABINET WILL ALL FORMALLY RESIGN

President McKinley Intends to Reappoint All Members Except Attorney General Griggs.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—President McKinley has decided to request the resignations of all the members of the cabinet, to take effect on March 4. On Tuesday he will renominate them all, with the exception of Attorney General Griggs, who thus far has resisted the president's importunities to remain at the head of the Department of Justice for another four years. It is known that Mr. Griggs has finally decided that his business interests are such that he cannot afford to remain, and has so informed the president. He will remain in office, however, until April 1.

Tried to Crown a Woman.

Atlanta, Ga., March 1.—An unknown negro entered the residence of Mrs. Buchanan in the heart of the city and compelled her to cook his breakfast. Then tying her feet and hands he quietly ate the breakfast, after which he set fire to the house by lighting a quantity of paper he had placed in a bed, where he had forced Mrs. Buchanan to lie. The negro escaped without being detected. Mrs. Buchanan screamed, and assistance came before the fire had gained much headway. A search is now being made for the negro.

Glassmakers Fight the Trust.

Philadelphia, March 1.—L. von Gerichten of Columbus, Ohio, has been making unsuccessful efforts to combine the Philadelphia stained glass manufacturers against the trust. The larger concerns here say the small-makers prevented the combine by underbidding.

Mrs. Sturdevant of Oshkosh is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Baker at their home in the town of Janesville.

MASKED MEN KILL MURDERER.

Johnson Miller, a Full-Blooded Creek Indian, Shot to Death.

Holdenville, I. T., March 1.—At 12:30 a. m. Johnson Miller, a full-blooded Creek Indian, was shot to death by a body of masked men. Miller was under arrest for the murder of Herbert McDade Dec. 22 last. He was arrested near Wetumka and brought here pending a hearing before the United States commissioner. The officers, fearing trouble, secretly conveyed the prisoner out of town two or three miles and lodged him at the farmhouse of Robert Stewart. Shortly after midnight forty armed and masked men forced an entrance into the house, disarmed the guards and began shooting at the prisoner at short range. The prisoner escaped from the house by jumping through a screen door and fled across the yard, clearing a four-foot picket fence at one leap, running 300 yards, where he was overtaken. More than a dozen bullet holes are to be seen in his body. Seventy-five or more shots were fired. The kitchen where he was confined when attacked has fourteen bullet holes through the walls and furniture.

CROWD ONLY JEERS RAVISHER SPENKLE

Surrounded by Four Companies of Militia the Brute Was Taken to Carrolton, Ill., Jail.

Carrollton, Ill., March 1.—Surrounded by four companies of state militia Albert Spenkile who confessed to the assailing of thirteen year old Della Gill, arrived here this morning from Springfield where he had been taken to prevent a lynching. The entire town turned out to witness his arrival, but beyond a few shouts of derision it was notable for the absence of a demonstration. Spenkile was hurried to the court house where the judge awaited his coming. It was found that the keys to the handcuffs worn by Spenkile had been lost and the judge refused to proceed until the handcuffs were removed. A blacksmith was sent for. He was sentenced to prison for life.

HE SLAPPED CONGER.

Frenchman Says That He Punished Our Minister to China.

New York, Feb. 29.—Mr. Conger, the American minister to China, was slapped in the face one day during the siege of Peking by the husband of a brave woman to whom he was rude. Auguste F. Chamot, a millionaire silk merchant of Peking, and his wife and nephew, are at the Fifth Avenue hotel en route to the European capitals, where Chamot will be knighted and decorated for valiant and heroic work during the siege of Peking. Chamot and his brave wife prevented more than one thousand foreigners from dying of starvation while the Chinese city was under bombardment during June and July of last year. Mrs. Chamot, who is a San Francisco girl, fought shoulder to shoulder with her husband during the long and trying days of the siege. She has been decorated with the Legion of Honor by the French government and pensioned for life. "I hope it will never again fall to my lot," Mr. Chamot said, "to pass through another siege of Peking. As a resident of the imperial city and a foreign devil, as the Chinese call us, it was my misfortune to be in Peking when the revolution broke out and I was forced to remain there through the fifty-eight days of the terrible siege of that ill-fated city. I am sorry I cannot say a good word for the American minister, Mr. Conger. Every day I fed him with ox flesh and food which I procured at the risk of my life. One day after we had been under fire all day Conger came up to my wife and, without a word of warning, without a polite request or anything else, deliberately snatched from her shoulder a Mauser rifle and handed it over to a man. When I heard about the affair I hunted up Conger and in the same abrupt manner in which he disarmed my wife I slapped his face."

VETERANS REFUSE TO PARTICIPATE

Will Not Engage in the Inaugural Parade on the 4th of March.

WANT PLACE OF HONOR

Their Offer of an Escort to the President Was Refused by Gen. Greene.

PLANS FOR THE INAUGURATION

Washington, March 1.—Fully and definitely the veterans of the civil war have decided not to participate in next week's inaugural parade. This is the first time since the rebellion. Gen. Sickles, who had been given command of the veterans' division has been relieved from further duty on his own request by Grand Marshall Greene. The old soldiers absolutely refused to accept any other position in the parade than that of escort to the president which Greene refused.

INAUGURATION OF MCKINLEY.

Crowds Promise to Be the Greatest Known in History.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—Trained bears are to participate in the inaugural parade. Mark Lilly of Arizona has brought the bears from Nogales, Ariz., and says the bears will march as part of an election bet. He explains that Customs Collector William M. Hoey of Nogales and Chairman Taggart of the Democratic state committee of Indiana made a bet last fall by which the loser was to pay Lilly's expenses to Washington with his bears, which he captured in the Santa Rita mountains about a year ago.

Preparations for the inauguration of President McKinley next Monday are rapidly nearing completion, and unless all signs fail there will be a larger crowd of strangers present to witness the ceremonies than Washington has seen in many years.

Decorations and Court of Honor.

The reviewing stands erected along Pennsylvania avenue from the foot of the capitol grounds to Seventeenth street are uniform in design. The general decorations of the city will be more lavish and artistic than formerly. Pennsylvania avenue will be illuminated during the nights of March 4, 5 and 6, but a special feature will be made of that part extending from Fifteenth street to Seventeenth street on the north front of the White House grounds. This section has been designated the "Court of Honor," and many special features of the illumination will be introduced. Commander Baird, superintendent of the state, war and navy department building, has placed electric lights forming the well-known badges of the Fifth and Ninth army corps as used during the civil war on the east pavilion of the big granite tri-department building. President McKinley, as a major in the army, served in both these corps.

The following is the inauguration day program:

MONDAY, MARCH 4.

11 a. m.—Gathering of high government officials and specially invited guests in the United States senate chamber.
11:50 a. m.—Inauguration of Theodore Roosevelt of New York, as vice president of the United States. Ceremonies in the senate, attended by the president and a distinguished company.
12 noon—President McKinley takes the oath of office in the presence of the assembled multitude. Delivers inaugural address.
1:30 p. m.—Inaugural parade moves from the capitol up Pennsylvania avenue.
7:30 p. m.—Illumination of the Court of Honor, in front of White House.
7:45 p. m.—Display of aerial fireworks from Washington monument grounds.
8 p. m.—Doors of pension office open for reception of guests of the inaugural ball.
9 p. m.—Inaugural ball opened by President McKinley.

COUNT BONI IS COMING OVER TO BEG

French Spendthrift and His Wife Want to Borrow Money from the Goulds.

Paris, March 1.—Count and Countess De Castellane will sail for New York tomorrow on the steamer La Champagne. They intend to remain in the United States for a month. The object of the visit is said to be Count Boni's desire to negotiate a private loan with the members of the Gould family.

He has declared openly at his clubs that he cannot exist upon the paltry $250,000 a year which the American courts have seen fit to place at the disposal of George Gould, receiver for the Countess De Castellane's fortune, as the limit of her yearly allowance.

Count Boni has been successful before in "raising the wind" in New York, but the determined stand taken by the Gould family toward him in the recent litigation makes it improbable that they will open their private purse to satisfy his passion for reckless expenditure.

Count Boni hopes that he will be able to negotiate a large loan on long terms to tide him over the period during which creditors will get the major portion of his wife's $800,000 income. It is said that the countess is hopeful for her part to induce the count to remain a year or two in America, as his extravagant tastes would then of necessity be curbed. She is anxious to avoid the hostility which the recent court proceedings have evoked in the aristocratic circles in which he moved.

THE NEWS FROM COUNTY TOWNS

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.
W. W. CLARKE, Manager.
Milton, Wis., March 1, 1901.

The next lecture in the college course will be given Tuesday evening, March 5, by J. H. A. Lachner of Waukesha. His subject is "The Germans in America", and as he comes highly recommended by local friends, the capacity of college chapel should be taxed to its utmost. The lecture by President Salisbury on "The Worth of a Man," was heard by the largest audience of the season, and gave excellent satisfaction. Any brief synopsis would not do the production justice, and we can only say that no one could listen to its delivery without being instructed, interested and improved both intellectually and morally.

The following is a list of the subscribers in the local telephone exchange up to the present time: Clem W. Crumb, F. C. Dunn, F. S. Livingston, F. G. Borden, M. Rice, W. W. Clarke, G. R. Bore, J. Vincent, B. H. Wells, M. L. Brown, Rev. L. A. Platte, E. S. Babcock, J. H. Burdick, H. E. Holmes, Adderson & Williams, J. R. Richmond & Son, E. F. Davis, E. A. Holmes, G. Hansen & Co., Crosley & Maxson, T. I. Place, W. P. Clarke, Bank of Milton, B. F. Ballard, T. A. Saunders, N. W. Crosley, W. K. Davis.

The district convention of the Good Templars held here on Wednesday and Thursday was well attended by members of the order representing towns in the district. The lectures by Grand Chief Templar Clark of Ripon, and Mrs. Richards of Ohio, were the chief attractions, being open to the public. The convention should be the means of strengthening the local branch of the order. This is the Rock River district.

Du Lac lodge will initiate two candidates next Monday evening, if nothing unexpected occurs.

Mrs. Lowery of Evansville, visited her sisters, the Misses Vincent this week.

Prof. Albert R. Crandall of Alfred, N. Y., spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Milton friends, who were glad to meet him. He is en route home from Kentucky, where he has been on professional business.

The relatives and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hudson enjoyed a very pleasant reunion at their home Wednesday evening, it being the occasion of their retirement from the life of a farmer, which they have held so many years.

An Oshkosh Man...

For months my liver, stomach and bowels were in very bad condition. My appetite failed, my skin turned yellow, I suffered from indigestion, lost flesh rapidly and was obliged to leave work. I had no movement of the bowels for months except through the use of warm water injections. Doctors could give me no relief. A friend recommended "Quaker Tonic" and I began taking it. Its action in my case has been truly wonderful. Two weeks' treatment got me back to work and six weeks' treatment has made me a perfectly well man. Several friends to whom I have recommended "Quaker Tonic" are using it with the same result. Its curative power is certainly astonishing. C. C. COVEY, 330 Main Street, Oshkosh, Wis.

Quaker Tonic Tablets are for sale at all druggists. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes $2.50. If your druggist don't sell them write Penn Drug Co., Oshkosh, Wis., for free sample.

R & G CORSETS
NEVER STRETCH

The moderately straight R & G No. 397 was and is the corset of comfort with the essence of style. It is straight enough for the prevailing vogue and curved enough to conform to healthful anatomical lines. In 1900 we were unable to fully meet the demand for straight-front goods and unwilling to resort to any makeshift to meet the conditions. At present, however, considerable additions to our factory facilities enable us to keep the trade supplied with real straight-front corsets at retail prices from $1.00 to $2.50, and also our 397, 197, Empire and other popular numbers. There are over seventy styles and sizes of R & G Corsets—a corset to fit every figure. R & G Corsets are the corsets that do not stretch. Every hairbreadth of stretch is taken out of the goods by means of steam-heated iron forms. This gives a permanency to the right shape and form that will stay in it until the last day you wear it. Every R & G Corset is sold with the understanding that it must give satisfaction to the wearer, or the dealer will supply a new one free of cost. If your dealer hasn't it, send us his name and we will see that you are supplied with what you want.

New York, Feb. 27.—In commenting on the South African war the London correspondent of the Tribune says that military men at the metropolis are inclined to believe that Lord Kitchener is preparing a coup with the object of completely demolishing either Dewet or Botha, if not both, on the anniversary of Majuba, today, just as Lord Roberts crushed Cronje twelve months ago.

LIVED TOO LONG.

There are people in every community who appear to have outlived their usefulness, and the remark is often heard, "Better for society if that man was dead." These people usually belong to the worthless and criminal classes. Men and women who either have no regard for law, or who are so given over to passion and appetite that their presence in the home is a menace, and in society a nuisance.

There are a few public men who seem to have lived too long for their own good, not because of physical weakness, or moral degeneracy, but because of lack of mental ballast to hold them steady. Admiral Dewey belongs to this class. Fame came to him at a single bound, and long years of preparation seemed to have qualified him to endure the shock. When the guns of his fleet started the word with an echo that was sharp and decisive, the name of George Dewey became a household word in every American home, before the smoke had cleared away.

During the trying months that followed he was equal to every responsibility, and when he entered New York harbor, he was the idol of every American heart. A tour through the country would have accorded him the grandest ovation ever given to an American citizen. But he went to Washington, and tumbled, like a clod, into the lap of his new wife. His mental faculties seemed to relax, and his conservative judgment deserted him in the height of his glory. Pity and sympathy, succeeded cheer and wild exultation. History will deal kindly with Admiral Dewey, the hero of Manila bay and the greatest naval commander of his day, by dropping a curtain between the years of his active and erratic life. The present generation, however, find it difficult to forget his weakness.

Admiral Sampson is just now making an exhibition of himself that suggests that he has lived a little too long for his own glory. The unseemly quarrel that he has encouraged between himself and Admiral Schley might have been overlooked because the common people take but little interest in that kind of a scramble, and very many of them do not take the trouble to inform themselves about it, but the insult just offered to his gunner, Charles Morgan, will not pass unrecognized. Mr. Morgan was a gunner on the battle ship New York, when Admiral Sampson was in command. He was intelligent and faithful, and commended for his bravery and efficiency. The president had the appointment of half a dozen ensigns the other day, and gunner Morgan was among the applicants for this slight promotion. He wrote a courteous letter to Admiral Sampson asking for his endorsement. The request was refused, not because of lack of ability and merit, but because of social position and lack of social advantages, under the flimsy pretext that the standing of the navy must be held up to a high social standard.

For a specimen of genuine American snobbery, that only be equalled by Gen. Miles. If Admiral Sampson is possessed of the notion that the American people are in sympathy with that sort of nonsense, he had better tie up his ship for a few days and go out in the country where people live. A few more moves of that kind will relieve the historian of any responsibility, except the dropping of the curtain after the first act.

Secretary Gage is another public servant whose record is not improving with age. His ruling on Russian sugar and against American industries, while perhaps technically right, was uncalled for and unnecessary. There are some people in this world that are over-conscientious, and the secretary of the treasury appears to belong to this class. You sometimes find these people around railroad offices, who don't know any better than to follow printed instructions to the letter. They are peck-measure men, who spend so much time interpreting instructions, that hustling competition gets away with the business. Perfectly honest, but too conscientious. There is a certain amount of flexibility recognized by all corporations and by all successful servants, and the question of honesty is not involved, but the question of good horse sense is, and this Secretary Gage seems to lack. His proposed retirement from the cabinet will not be regarded as a serious loss.

The bequest of Mr. F. S. Eldred to the city for library purposes, should be thoroughly appreciated, and wisely invested. If it can be used as a nucleus, and supplemented, with the much discussed gift of Mr. Carnegie, the city may have a home for its library that will be creditable and very useful. Mr. Eldred's gift came as a surprise, and will long be a reminder of a life that lent character and stability to the city that was so long his home.

THE SENTINEL'S ATTITUDE.

The Milwaukee Sentinel, under its new management, could not long remain neutral on the Primary Law question. Under the old regime the paper was pronounced in support of the measure. The men who now control it and dictate its policy, while perfectly friendly to the governor, are not in sympathy with radical legislation, and in opposing the measure, they are actuated by the same spirit that prompts the opposition all over the state. They regard the bill as revolutionary, and fear that its enactment would result in grave disaster to the party.

The ardent supporters of the bill will make a mistake, if they assign to the opposition personal motives or prejudice. The Milwaukee Sentinel, and other papers in the state that are contending against the bill, are actuated by honest convictions. They are loyal to the party and will continue to be. Men often differ on questions of expediency, and the right of earnest debate and honest discussion is never questioned. Whatever may be the fate of the Primary bill, the party will continue to live, and it should live as a united party. It is unfortunate that after years of internal strife that at least two years could not have been spent in cultivating friendly relations, free from contending discussion.

If the advice of General Gomez is followed, there will be no trouble with Cuba. He says that if the United States troops are withdrawn that he will go with them, as life and property would not be safe without the protection afforded. The general realizes the importance of an American protectorate for some time to come, and will exert his influence to have it established.

The colossal steel corporation, which incorporates eight great companies, will be watched by the public for results. If the corporation is as ably conducted as were the negotiations which made it possible, Mr. Babcock's relief measures will not be needed.

Rear-Admiral Sampson has given as his estimate of what constitutes a gentleman, such a narrow minded view, as to reflect on his judgment. The admiral will have serious difficulty in convincing the American people that social veneer outshines the true gentleman.

All this talk of a retaliatory combination of continental Europe against the United States seems to be a bluff. Europe cannot afford to lose our products, and we could live and prosper forever without a ship load of Europe's exports.

The impartiality of the committee elected from eastern universities, to report on Prof. Ross' dismissal, is unquestioned. Their report is given with extreme caution and doubtless will carry weight.

Dr. Dowie is resurrecting a few of his old threats against Chicago newspapers, in order to hurl them against the investigating committee of the Illinois legislature.

If the historian were to confine himself to actual deeds, and leave out of consideration speeches and debates, he would find the fifty-sixth congress not a very fertile field for his abilities.

There seems to be somewhat of a similarity between Chicago University and J. Pierpont Morgan. They both want the earth.

WILLIAMS AND GORDON

Thomas Gordon and George Williams, the two men arrested by Officer Cash Whipple of Beloit for holding up and robbing T. C. Whitford on the night of Feb. 1, were brought into court this morning by Sheriff Maltress.

District Attorney Jackson filed information against them charging them with holding up T. C. Whitford on the 21st of February and robbing him of $5. The two prisoners plead not guilty to the information and Judge Fifield held them for trial on March 6 and in default of $500 bail they went back to jail.

Our Military Schools.

The annual report of the inspector general of the army regarding military schools shows that there are 110 such schools scattered through every state of the union. Last year they had 33,135 students enrolled, of whom 27,200 were over 14 years of age, and the students, former students and alumni of these institutions, to the number of 3,353, served in the war with Spain, of whom 1,984 were officers and 2,416 enlisted men.

MRS. B. J. KEHOE DEAD

Passed Away This Morning at 7:30 O'clock After Illness of Seven Weeks with Consumption.

Mrs. B. J. Kehoe died this morning at 7:30 o'clock at 258 South Bluff street, after an illness of seven weeks. Consumption was the cause of her demise. She had been a patient sufferer and her loss will be felt by her many friends in this city. Mrs. Kehoe was thirty-two years of age and formerly resided at Johnston. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Meyer of that place are still living. Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Nellie B., eight years of age. She has also four sisters, Mrs. Levi Caniff and Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin of this city, Mrs. Chas. McKuen of Johnston, and Miss Lizzie Meyer of Kansas City; and three brothers, Nicholas and William of Johnston, and John Meyer of Dubuque.

Funeral services will be held from the home Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock and from St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock. The interment will be at Mt. Olivet.

Mrs. James Fallows.

Mattie C. Fallows, the beloved wife of James Fallows, died at her home on Forest Park boulevard yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. Death came to her as a welcome release from the months of suffering which she had endured, the cause being dropsy. She was fifty-five years of age, and was of a retiring nature. A husband and one daughter are left to mourn her death.

Mrs. Amanda Kellogg Dead.

Word was received by relatives in this city today that Mrs. Amanda Kellogg died at her home in Racine this morning. The funeral will be held from her home in that city tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Kellogg will be remembered as Miss Amanda Fish, and formerly resided near Leyden. She had many friends in this city, who will be pained to hear of her death.

Madame Friedland's Lecture.

A small audience of the cultured women of this city enjoyed an afternoon of educational value in listening to the lecture on "The Historical Development of the Russian Woman" given by Madame Friedland under the auspices of the Janesville Art League yesterday. Certainly a much larger attendance was warranted both by the eminence of the noted speaker and by the obligations under which the people of Janesville, the women especially, have been placed by the hospitality of the Art League.

Much of the pleasure to the ladies attending lay in the pleasure of meeting this cultured Russian woman of high rank who is even more charming in her vivacity and spontaneity of thought in personal conversation than she is as a brilliant lecturer. On the platform she is slightly handicapped by her accent which necessitates the closest attention of her audience, but given this attention she is easily understood. Her choice of language is exquisite and her lecture of yesterday was very interesting.

Her description of the Russian woman of today in the enjoyment of a liberty second only to that accorded American women was quite a revelation to her hearers.

The peasant is still little better than a slave but many reforms have been wrought in the higher classes by the rebellion of woman's spirit against her fate. If there are still restrictions it is now the fault of society and not of the government. The Russian woman has always been more progressive than other European women and her present emancipation is due largely to the inherent nobility of her soul and the encouragement given woman's movement by Peter the Great and the Empress Catherine. The Russian woman of today is prominent in scientific, educational and artistic fields and she has ever been courageous and high minded.

Preacher Paid to See a Dance.

Creston, Iowa, March 1.—The Rev. Mr. Maine, pastor of the Alton Methodist church, attended a dance Tuesday night, paying $1 at the door and remaining some time as a spectator. The preacher was not there as a dancer; in fact, he took no part in the dance programme, but talked kindly and pleasantly with those who were present and especially to a couple of church members who were taking part in the festivities. Last Sunday morning the Rev. Mr. Maine preached a sermon to converts and touched on the subject of dancing and card playing. He informed his congregation that he proposed to look after his flock as a shepherd would his sheep and if any lambs were to stray away to dances and card parties he would be there.

Improvements in Sponge Fishing.
The art of sponge fishing is likely to be revolutionized by the introduction of submarine electric arc lamps. At present the fishing apparatus is limited to a long pole for spearing, and a water glass. If the lamps prove successful, greater depths may be reached and larger and finer sponges secured.

LIBRARY FOR JANESVILLE FROM ANDREW CARNEGIE

Good Promise That He Will Give From $30,000 to $40,000 For a Building For That Purpose.

OGDEN H. FETHERS SECURED THE DEAL

Incited By The Gazette's Agitation He Has a Well Known New York Business Man Sound the Pittsburgh Millionaire On the Subject and He Has the Brightest Hopes For Success—Carnegie is Pleased With the Support Given Present Library By the Bower City.

The members of the public library board were surprised and delighted last evening with the information that through the efforts of Hon. Ogden H. Fethers the movement started some time ago by the Gazette for the securing of a new library building has been placed before Mr. Carnegie under such unusually favorable circumstances that an appropriation of from $30,000 to $40,000 is an assured fact.

The Gift is Certain. Mr. Carnegie has been reached personally and in such a manner that Mr. Fethers regards the gift as much of a certainty as though he had been informed that the money was on the way.

Mr. Fethers returned home from the East on Wednesday and it was during his visit in New York city that he was able to secure Mr. Carnegie's

Mr. Fethers, this city is indebted for this success in reaching Mr. Carnegie stated that one of the most powerful arguments in the city's favor was the fact that it had supported its library for so many years by voluntary annual taxation of $3,000, which is commendable in a small city.

This disposition to help ourselves will be of the utmost weight with Mr. Carnegie who will have absolutely nothing to do with a community which has done nothing by its own effort. Neither will he give any support to a library which relies on voluntary contribution for its annual expenses.

A city must have supported its library by taxation for years enough to warrant the belief that it will always do so before Mr. Carnegie will consider any claims from it to his generosity. He further requires the city to which he makes a gift to enter into a strict compact to do certain stipulated things for the library on which his money is expended. In short he is a thorough business man and he expects any proposition with which he is connected to be conducted strictly on business principles.

Ready to Meet Requirements. That Janesville will be ready gladly to meet any requirements which Mr. Carnegie may make is assured by the spirit of pride in our library which has recently been awakened by the quiet influence of efficient members of the library board and by the more aggressive work of the Women's clubs who were stimulated to action by Miss Marvin of the state library commission. A modern library will be of inestimable value to the city and one that cannot be properly appreciated until its benefits have been enjoyed by the people.

The citizens of Janesville should realize and appreciate their good fortune in having in their midst a gentleman who was able to bring to his aid such powerful influences and who, being able, possessed the progressive spirit that made him willing to undertake such a task.

Hard to Reach Carnegie. It is no easy matter to reach Carnegie.

Since the publication of the statement that he would give $1,000,000 monthly to libraries he has been so flooded with requests from almost every cross-roads station and hamlet that he has actually been driven from his downtown office. For weeks he has not been near it, a private secretary and three stenographers are kept at his house and no stranger is allowed to approach him on the subject of libraries.

His mail is enormous and averages about one thousand letters daily asking for libraries. Those in a position to know say that not more than one out of a hundred of these letters is ever seen by Mr. Carnegie, the bulk of them destroying their own chances by the manner in which the petition is made.

Sure of Ultimate Success. Owing to the vast business changes being made by Mr. Carnegie a decision in regard to the Janesville library may not be reached for some time. Mr. Fethers is confident of the final outcome.

He says that while it may not come next week nor yet next month, the confidence of his New York friend makes him sure of ultimate success.

This gentleman's desire to remain unknown arises from the fear that the publication of his name would subject him to the same kind of a storm of appeals which has overwhelmed Mr. Carnegie.

In reference to the possibility of using the late F. S. Eldred's bequest of $10,000 in connection with the Carnegie gift, Mrs. Eldred said that just before his death she was talking with her husband on the subject and he told her that in case Mr. Carnegie built a library he desired that his bequest be used for some definite part of it, such as a room or a suite of rooms which should be known as the memorial to his daughter.

Library Board Meeting. Mr. Fethers report of what he had been able to do was made informally to the members of the library board last evening in response to his invitation. Mrs. Fethers is the vice president of the library board and the news which her husband gave to her co-workers was hailed with delight.

LEMKE VERSUS BRADY

The case of Lemke vs. Brady was on trial in the circuit court yesterday and today. The interested parties live in Waukesha from which place a change of venue was taken to this county. Brady purchased a stock farm near Waukesha from Lemke on which there was a number of head of blooded cattle. Soon after the purchase a number of the cattle died from tuberculosis. Brady, the defendant claimed that the cattle were diseased at the time the deal was made and asked Mrs. Lemke to make an allowance for the cattle which were killed by the state veterinarian. Mrs. Lemke declined to make any allowance for the cattle and sued Brady for the full amount of the purchase money and to have him ousted from the farm. A legal proposition in the case came up this morning and the matter was adjourned until March 11 to give the attorneys time to look the matter up. It will be argued at that time and the taking of testimony continued. T. E. Ryan of the law firm of Ryan & Merton, Waukesha, are looking after Brady's interests and Milwaukee attorneys are for Mrs. Lemke.

attention and to place before him the pertinent facts concerning the matter. All of this was done through a prominent New York business man who is a close personal friend of Mr. Fethers' and who also stands in the closest relations with Mr. Carnegie, both in matters of business and in friendship.

Man Close to Mr. Carnegie.

In fact it is asserted that no man is closer to the wealthy patron of libraries. He has frequently been consulted by Mr. Carnegie when he was considering requests in regard to library gifts and the fact that Janesville's request has been presented by this gentleman with his hearty endorsement makes certain the fact that it will be granted.

So confident is the gentleman himself that he told Mr. Fethers that the gift was as good as made to Janesville as soon as Mr. Carnegie was spoken to.

Gazette Began the Agitation.

When the Gazette first set in motion the plan of securing a library Mr. Fethers was readily interested and gave his hearty co-operation and knowing the all-importance of proceeding in the right way he advised patience until the right opportunity should present itself. When he went to New York he made it his special business to look for the right opportunity and he found it with a readiness that surprised even himself.

The New York gentleman, through whom the opportunity was found, is to remain unknown. It was only with the express understanding that his name is not to appear publicly in the transaction that he gave Mr. Fethers his help.

He Saw the Philanthropist.

When Mr. Fethers in friendly conversation told him of what he hoped to do for Janesville and of his desire to reach Mr. Carnegie in a personal way this gentleman said: "Why there is nothing easier in the world. I am the very one to help you and I will do it."

Saturday a member of the Carnegie firm who is also one of Mr. Carnegie's personal friends and advisers was invited to dine with Mr. Fethers and his friend. The matter was laid before this gentleman and his co-operation and endorsement was secured and by Monday noon the request from Mr. Fethers with his doubly strong backing was in Mr. Carnegie's hands. In his request Mr. Fethers stated that a building which would meet all requirements could be erected for from $30,000 to $40,000 and that a suitable site would cost several thousand more. ## ...LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS...

GEN. BOTHA IS STILL FREE.

False Report of Surrender Raises English Hopes.

DEWET AND HERZOG COMBINE.

Their Consolidated Commandos Number 1,000 Men and Many Extra Horses—These Troops Are Aligned in Battle—A Dash Is Expected Shortly.

London, March 1.—After feeding all day on false reports of Gen. Botha's surrender, London last night received the disappointing news that Gen. Dewet and Hertzog had joined their forces in Cape Colony, their consolidated commandos numbering over 2,000 men and many extra horses. These troops are aligned in a battle front several miles wide and are heading eastward toward Colesburg, with Col. Thorneycroft's column hanging on their rear. The Orange river flood is subsiding and a desperate dash north may be the invader's next move. Other British pursuing forces are north and south of them.

BOERS HAVEN'T GIVEN UP.

Dispatches to London Papers Are Simply Fictitious.

London, Feb. 29.—Another report has gone the rounds today to the effect that General Louis Botha has surrendered to Lord Kitchener, and that it was all over with the Boer war. This statement was printed in the Chronicle, which of late has been busy catching De Wet and killing Boers in thousands—by cable!

The officials of the war office declared this morning that they had no confirmation of the rumor that Gen. Botha had surrendered.

This of course disposes of the story, but it has also set observant persons to thinking, and this is the sum of their thoughts: That never at any stage of the war has there been such masterful lying as is now being dished out to the London public every day. Not even the arrant General Buller could outdo the alleged cables that are being printed in the daily newspapers.

A good sample of this sort of thing is the alleged pursuit and capture of De Wet, which has been printed three times in a few days. French's report, claiming to have killed 300 Boers in an engagement, was found on analysis to be a grand total of Boer losses for many weeks, but the British losses are carefully concealed, and will be as long as Kitchener controls the cables.

A dispatch from De Aar, Cape Colony, of yesterday's date, says that while a few of Gen. De Wet's men have crossed the Orange river, their commander and Mr. Steyn, the majority of the force and Herzog's command, are encamped on the south bank, awaiting an opportunity to cross.

REPORTS OF SURRENDER.

London Papers Assert That There Is No Doubt of It.

London, Feb. 28.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says: "Information has just reached Downing street that Commandant Botha formally surrendered to Lord Kitchener at Middleburg, Transvaal, shortly before 9 o'clock this morning. All details had previously been arranged and the moment vivendi settled some days before."

No confirmation of this report could be had at the war office.

It is presumed that if true the news would be first cabled by Lord Kitchener, who controls all avenues of news.

The Mail's Advice.

London, Feb. 28, 3 p. m.—A dispatch to the Evening Mail from Manchester states that Gen. Botha formally surrendered shortly before 10 o'clock this morning.

From Gay to Grave.

There is an usher at one of the downtown theaters who is a professional palibearer during the day. "I get," he says, "$2.50 for every palibearing engagement, and I like the work. It is, you see, such a complete and pleasant change from my theatrical employment. I must wear a gala smile at the theater at all times, and the gayety there, the mirth and lightheartedness, prove very monotonous. I long for something in gloomy black, with a look of gloom in my eyes, and the sobs I hear, the groans, the lamentations and the lugubrious music are very soothing to me after the eternal heartless jollity of the playhouse. The two kinds of work diversify my life; I touch on two extremes. I make, besides, a good deal of money. I have made $30 a week as a palibearer. At the theater my salary is only $7.50. There are certain perquisites at the theater, however, perquisites won through seating people, which materially increase my income. It is not an uncommon thing among us ushers to be palibearers during the day."—Philadelphia Record.

Frank McDade of Elkhorn called on friends in this city yesterday.

DOINGS OF THE LAW MAKERS.

ILLINOIS.

Thursday, February 28.
Several interesting bills were introduced in the house. Two of them called for the employment of convicts to help make good roads in Illinois. One of the convict labor bills was introduced by Representative Drew of Joliet. The measure was drawn up by R. W. Richardson, secretary of the National Good Roads association. It provides that all re-banded convicts, not otherwise employed in labor for the state, shall be put to work quarrying, crushing and screening stone to be used for roads.

Representative Ridgely of Sangamon county introduced a bill providing that counties may provide for the keeping of their own convicts within the county and use them on public highways.
There is every prospect that this session of the legislature will be from two to four weeks longer than had been planned by the republican steering committee. A resolution was adopted in the house this morning extending to April 1 the time for closing the introduction of bills. The committee on rules had put the "stop time" at March 8; today's resolution adds three weeks to the life of the bill-introducing machinery. The senate did not work today, and will do nothing until March 12.

INDIANA.

Thursday, February 28.
The Calumet river water way bill was killed in the house, the enacting clause being stricken out by a vote of 55 to 28. Among the incidents of the three hours' discussion was the unrolling of a petition some thirty feet long, purporting to be signed by Whiting people. Mr. Krells, the member from Lake, who opposed the bill, lives at Whiting, and gave as the reason of his opposition that his people were opposed to it. He was called upon to look at the petition and say in face of it that his people opposed the measure, but he remained silent. It was charged on the floor that he was influenced by the railroads, and was misrepresenting his people. The advocates of the bill argued that the canal would be a great advantage to Indiana, and that as the state is not asked to bear any of the expense the legislature would stand in the way of progress if it killed it. The only reason given for voting against it was that the people of Lake county did not want it. The bill provided for a ship canal from Lake Michigan to the Calumet river. The cost was estimated at several millions of dollars, to be assessed against property within a distance of one and one-half miles. The east and west railroad lines bitterly fought it.

WILL CUT TAXES $21,000,000.

Senate Agrees to the War Revenue Reduction Bill.

Washington, D. C., March 1.—The senate has agreed to the conference report on the war revenue reduction bill. There was no objection. Among the reductions agreed upon are the following: Tobacco, 20 per cent reduction on the original tax; cigars, $3 per 1,000 instead of $3.60; beer, $1.60 per barrel. The tax is repealed on bank checks, money orders, certificates and promissory notes, express receipts, telephone and telegraph messages; leases and mortgages, warehouse receipts, proprietary medicines, perfumery and cosmetics and chewing gum. The total reduction agreed upon is $21,000,000 a year. The bill as agreed upon will take effect July 1, 1901.

Vote for Rivers and Harbors.

The senate passed the river and harbor appropriation bill as fast as it could be read by the clerk. The feeling of good-fellowship which is noticeable upon the floors of both houses was particularly marked as large, fat allowances were made for the benefit of those senators who withdrew their opposition to the Philippine and Cuban amendments to the army appropriation bill. The river and harbor bill will now go to the house, and afterward into conference, and become a law.

Wants More Pay for Congressmen.

Senator Butler has given notice of an amendment he will offer to the sundry civil bill increasing the salaries of senators and members of congress to $7,500 per year.

Miners Killed in Explosion.

Weir City, Kan., March 1.—An explosion occurred at 10 o'clock last night at shaft No. 3 of the J. R. Crowe Coal company. Two shot-firers, S. B. Hatfield, single, and J. W. Watkins, married, were killed. Watkins was colored. The explosion is supposed to have been due to an accumulation of gas. The explosion was terrific, the timbers and shaft being torn to splinters. The lower part and top were wrecked.

Killed in a Saloon Brawl.

Middlesboro, Ky., Feb. 28.—At a saloon between here and Mingo Mines, Charles Pridemore, aged 28, was killed in a general row about midnight. Mike Welch, who is accused of killing Pridemore, was shot in the leg.

Henry Bromwell Near Death.

Denver, Colo., March 1.—Henry Bromwell, a noted jurist, twice elected congressman from Illinois and a personal friend of Lincoln, is dying.

Wealthy Man Missing.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 1.—Israel Messler, 60 years old, is missing. He recently sold $12,000 worth of property and converted it into cash. Last week he took his wife to Huntington, Ind., and he said he was going to Andrews. He never reached Andrews. Foul play is feared. He had a large sum of money with him.

Woman Identifies Assailant.

Denver, Colo., March 1.—Al. L. Cowen, a laborer, was identified yesterday morning by Annie McAtee and Mrs. May Short as the man who had assaulted them. The police say that his identification in these two cases as good as convicts him of seventeen similar assaults.

Negro Suspect Is Released.

Indianapolis, March 1.—"Doc" Reed, the negro brought here from Irvington, suspected of the assault upon Miss Dorothy Darter, was taken before Miss Darter and she promptly said he was not the man, whereupon he was released. When he was first arrested a photograph was forwarded and Miss Darter thought it resembled her assailant. When the prisoner was brought before her she scrutinized him carefully and is emphatic in her statement that it was some other negro.

Insurgent Attack Rep Ised.

Manila, March 1.—A band of seventy armed insurgents entered the town of Suag, in the province of South Ilocos, Luzon, where they killed one native and abducted five. At midnight of the same day they attacked the town of Santa Maria, burning fifty houses. The insurgents were repulsed by the Americans, who had one man wounded. One native scout and two civilians were killed. The insurgents retreated to the mountains, closely pursued. Their losses were not learned.

Turn Guns Against Peasants.

Rome, March 1.—Troubles have broken out in Calabria, the southern part of Italy, owing to the misery which the peasants are undergoing. They demand the parceling out of feudal lands in order that they may cultivate them. The prefect has been compelled to close the gates of the town of Ravenna, which is protected by troops, in order to prevent its invasion by thousands of peasants out of work. The prefect has promised to inaugurate relief works.

Morgan Makes Millions.

New York, March 1.—It is said that J. P. Morgan & Co. will clear $7,500,000 in commissions for carrying through the steel trust deal. This sum is in addition to the profits in handling the underwriters' money or the profits that may accrue to the firm as shareholders. Mr. Morgan when asked about his profits in the deal said it was none of the public's business.

Two Killed in a Bad Wreck.

Coal Valley, Pa., March 1.—Two dead, three badly hurt and a passenger train burned is the result of a head-end collision between passenger train No. 16, south-bound, and a local freight on the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad at Coal Valley. The dead are: Frank Whites, engineer of Uniontown; Milton S. Thompson, mail clerk of Brownville. Leg burned off, hurt internally, died on way to hospital.

Tries to Assassinate Two.

Grantsville, W. Va., March 1.—At 9:30 p. m. Miss Jannie Metz was entertaining a young man in her father's parlor when some one fired a bullet through the window at her. The bullet passed within an inch of her head. Just at dark, George Taylor, while walking along the road near the Metz home, was shot at three times from ambush, one bullet passing through his coat.

Omega Oil

ACHING BACKS—There are a whole lot of women (and men too) whose health would be good if they didn't have trouble with their backs. The back is the vital part of the body that requires strength. A weak back weakens you all over. You may have leg and arm muscles like a prizefighter, but those muscles won't do you any good if your back is weak. Nature supplies in Omega Oil all that is needed to make the muscles of the back strong. It is a green-colored, oily liniment. Rub it in at night before retiring, or get some one else to do it for you. Keep up this treatment for a little while, and your back won't hurt any more. If weak women will use more Omega Oil outside and less drugs inside, they will be better off. You simply rub it into the pores, and next day you'll feel its good effects. It is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

Never take a substitute for Omega Oil. If your druggist persistently refuses to give what you ask for, the Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail you a bottle, prepaid, for 50 cents in cash, money order or stamps.

The Coming Inaugural

With the pomp of military display, the roar of cannon, the crash of many hands and amid a great outpouring of the nation's dignitaries William McKinley will on March 4 commence his second term as president of the United States. For many days has the Capital City resounded with the noise of preparations for this event, and it may confidently be predicted that, granting that the weather conditions be favorable, the coming inaugural will surpass any of its predecessors in grandeur and extent of celebration.

The supreme moment of all this preparation will come when, shortly after noon on March 4, the president takes the oath of office. In the presence of a vast concourse of people intently watching the chief actors in the spectacle the president will repeat after Chief Justice Fuller the time honored "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States." Vice President Roosevelt will, according to custom, take the oath of office in the senate chamber, and the essential business of the inaugural will be over.

But there are other features of the inauguration of a president, unnecessary, it is true, but none the less imposing and well fitted to impress the spectators with a sense of the importance of the office. The two greatest have been and will be the grand parade and the inaugural ball. The former will of course march along the scene of so many similar pageants, Pennsylvania avenue.

Pennsylvania will have the largest representation in line. The entire three brigades of the national guard of the Keystone State, comprising 14 regiments, will be brought. Almost all of the other eastern states will be represented by their militia and some of the western, although there will not be as many national guardsmen from beyond the Mississippi as were hoped for. The number of civic organizations, marching clubs and the like that will be in line is very large and will help to swell the ranks to an enormous size. Nor will our regular army and navy be unrepresented. Colonel Percival C. Pope, commandant of the marines at Boston, will lead a detachment of 1,200 of these fighting sea soldiers. An interesting feature of the inaugural parade will be the presence in line of a large number of young men from various colleges and universities.

The procession will march past the capitol and be there reviewed by the president. The duty of seeing that all goes smoothly in the march devolves on the grand marshal, and it is well that an old soldier, General Francis Vinton Greene of New York, who has had much experience in such affairs, has been chosen for the post.

On the evening of the inauguration day, after the march of tramping thousands is stilled, the Capital City and its thousands of visitors will see a splendid display of fireworks. The pyrotechnic programme includes a large number of aerial pieces, among them the display in the air of the portraits done in fire of the president and vice president. The committee to supply the public with entertainment on the night of the inaugural has decided to have the exhibition of fireworks exclusively aerial, for the reason that set pieces are less satisfactory even at close sight and also because the high soaring fireworks may be witnessed comfortably by immense numbers without the annoyance of great crowds.

It is proposed to have at the inauguration a reception of all the governors who will be assembled at Washington. A number of these dignitaries have already signified their intention of being present, and others are expected. They will probably have set apart for them a place where they may receive those who wish to call and pay their respects.

The grandest scene of beauty of all the inaugural ceremonies will of course be the ball. This will be held in the pension bureau court, the best place in Washington to accommodate the 10,000 or more persons who are expected to be present. The ball will be public, and tickets to it have been on sale for some time.

John Joy Edson of Washington, the efficient chairman of the inaugural committee, after careful scrutiny of the various plans for the decoration of the pension office, decided that at least $18,000 must necessarily be expended to properly decorate the ballroom and the adjacent quarters. The scheme of decoration contemplates the complete conversion of the interior. It is to be an old gold ballroom, and the color effect will be secured by the use of about 100,000 yards of bunting. Yards and yards of this material will be used to form canopies and flouces and to swathe the immense columns that support the roof of the building.

Great quantities of roses, other cut flowers and plants will be used in the decoration scheme, and the ballroom will present a scene of fairyland beauty. There will be two music booths, one for the famous Marine band, "the president's band," which will furnish the promenade music, and the other for a celebrated orchestra to discourse sweet sounds for the followers of Terpsichore.

W. H. Rapley of Washington, chairman of the music committee of the inaugural committee, has arranged for the use of the pension office for a series of five concerts to be given on the 5th and 6th of March. For these the Marine band has also been engaged, and the concerts will give an opportunity to those who cannot attend the ball to inspect the magnificent decorations as well as to hear the celebrated musical organization.

It has been well said that although the citizens of the District of Columbia take no part in the election of the president they prove their loyalty by the success of most of the inaugurations, which are left in their hands. All the inaugural officials are District men, and it is with them a matter of civic pride to make of the national affair a splendid local success.

The Prophecy Fulfilled.

"The late editor's wife is something of a humorist."

"Indeed!"

"Yes. Took a line from his original salubrious and placed it on his tombstone."

"What was it?"

"We are here to stay!"—Atlanta Constitution.

FOOTVILLE.

Footville, March 1.—Miss Lottie Dean is on the sick list.

Mr. Mattice has a fine new stock of dry goods.

Revs. Weels and Bloom, accompanied by their wives, were entertained by Mrs. Schroeder last Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. Lacey is quite sick.

The Misses Howe will sing a duet on Sunday evening at the Christian church. You should hear them.

Mr. Seiber, whose horse and cutter were borrowed without consent by unknown parties, has recovered the same. The rig was found in Janesville in a lively stable.

The special services held in the Christian church are attracting large audiences and producing good results. On Sunday evening the orchestra will play, and all who love good music and singing should be present. You will be made welcome and enjoy these services.

Very Low One-Way Rates via C. & N. W. R'y.

On February 12, 19 and 26; March 5, 12, 19 and 26; and April 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30, to points west and northwest, and rates and territory call at passenger depot.

Bad Freight Wreck in Ohio.

Willoughby, O., March 1.—A large engine, a caboose and eighteen freight cars were demolished in a wreck on the Lake Shore main line near here. One freight train had stopped and a heavy freight train following crashed into it. Eighteen cars left the track and many of them were telescoped. Two tank cars loaded with oil burst. Fire followed and fifteen cars were burned. Three tracks were blocked and numerous telegraph poles were knocked down. The crews of both trains saw what was about to happen just in time to jump for their lives. Conductor Cheesebrough's arm was broken.

Killed by the Fast Mail.

Greenfield, Ind., Feb. 28.—Calvin Ballows, aged 43 years, an employee of the Trees Manufacturing company at this place, was instantly killed by the Pennsylvania fast mail this morning. Ballows came here two weeks ago from Galesburg, Ill. His home is supposed to have been in New York, where he had a son employed in a bank. Papers were found on his person showing that he was a graduate of Columbia College and that he had recently been in the employ of the Edison Electric Light company in South America.

Deadlock Causes Fight.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 1.—For six weeks there has been a deadlock in the city council over officers. The Democrats and three Republicans met Tuesday night, determined to transact business. Four other Republicans were seized and dragged to the council chamber by the police, where they were counted as being present. State warrants, charging the policemen with trespass were sworn out. The constables who attempted to serve them were assaulted by the police. A number of men were injured.

Trouble Among Recruits.

San Antonio, Tex., March 1.—Gen. McKibben, commanding the department of Texas, has been advised of trouble among recruits en route for San Francisco. He at once ordered a detachment of twenty men, under command of Capt. Beall, 30th United States infantry, and Lieut. Perry, 7th infantry, to Ennis, Tex., to meet the train bearing the recruits and deal with the situation as found. No particulars are known here. Capt. Beall's command left Fort Sam Houston via the Southern Pacific.

To Discharge Union Miners.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 1.—The Campbell Coal Mining company of Crossville, Tenn., has issued notices announcing that it would at once evict all union labor from its works. It is stated that the union will resist the order and bloodshed is feared. The president of the company announces that no union miners can in the future work in the mines under any circumstances.

Swallows Coin and May Die.

Winsted, Conn., March 1.—A silver half dollar may cause the death of thirteen-year-old Margaret Martin of Thomastown. She swallowed the coin in her mouth a week ago. She placed the coin in her mouth, was seized with an attack of coughing and the coin went part way down her throat. Physicians say her condition is alarming.

Burglar to Become Missionary.

Richmond, Va., March 1.—Frank Coles, in the penitentiary for burglary, has been recommended to the governor by the board of pardons for pardon. Among the conditions is that he leave the country. Coles, if pardoned, proposes to go as a missionary to some foreign land. Missionaries have full faith in him.

Mark Twain appeared before legislature at Albany, N. Y., and argued humorously in favor of osteopaths.

Are You Nervous?

Do you feel irritable and "out of sorts"? Your stomach is weak and does not properly digest your food. You need Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It will drive away all irregularities of the digestive system such as indigestion, constipation and biliousness. It quickly relieves sourness of the stomach, belching or flatulency. It is an excellent general tonic. See that our Private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

NIGHT AIR BRACING.

It is no more injurious than the atmosphere of Day.

In passing along a row of city tenements in the dawn of a midsummer day about ninety-nine of 100 windows can be seen tightly closed. Sleepers whose lungs crave life air as a desert traveler thirsts after a draft of cold water have excluded the refreshing night wind in obedience to the behest of a sanitary superstition. "Beware of draughts, get a dollar's worth of weather strips; be sure to close your windows after dark"—in other words, exclude the air which the children of nature have for myriads of ages breathed with perfect impunity, and poison your lungs with the azotized, sickening atmosphere of an unventilated bedroom. We might as well advise a health seeker to avoid rock springs and fill his water bucket at the effluent pipe of a festering city sewer. We might with the same logic admonish our children to beware of fresh vegetables and mountain strawberries and still their hunger with the garbage of a dump pile. Millions of travelers pass the night in boats and open sheds without the least injurious consequences; animals that perish with consumption in the atmosphere of a well-warmed menagerie survive the tremendous night storms of the tropical forests. Is night air a lung poison? Is the outdoor atmosphere made deadly by the absence of sunlight? Does the gas lamp of a stifling dormitory remedy that grievance? Must we exclude the cool night wind bringing relief to countless sufferers from the misery of a sweltering summer day? It is no exaggeration to say that individuals who have freed themselves from the nightmare of that superstition can live out-and-out healthier in the central wards of a large manufacturing town than its victims on the arid highlands of the southern Alleghenies.—Chautauquan.

Descendants of Mayflower Emigrants.

Wisconsin now has a branch of the Society of Mayflower descendants, with 28 members, all but two being women. To be eligible one must be a lineal descendant of a passenger of the voyage of the Mayflower which terminated at Plymouth, Mass., in December, 1620.

Unique Picnic at Pasadena.

A unique picnic took place on Valentine's day in Pasadena, Cal., where scores if not hundreds of former low-ans now residents of southern California held a jollification. Hundreds of others went there for the winter and all met on the date and at the place named.

ECZEMA'S ITOH IS TORTURE.

Eczeema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and inflammation; little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard, dry and fissured. Eczeema in any form is a tormenting, stubborn disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable; the acid burning humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire. Salves, washes nor other external applications do any real good, for as long as the poison remains in the blood it will keep the skin irritated.

BAD FORM OF TETTER.

"For three years I had Tetters on my hands, which caused them to swell to twice their natural size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of running sores, very painful, and causing me much discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetters had progressed too far to be cured, and they could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S. and was completely cured. This was fifteen years ago, and I have never since seen any sign of my old trouble."—Mrs. L. B. JACKSON, 1414 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo.

S. S. S. neutralizes this acid poison, cools the blood and restores it to a healthy, natural state, and the rough, unhealthy skin becomes soft, smooth and clear. SSS cures Tetters, Erysipelas, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and all skin diseases due to a poisoned condition of the blood. Send for our book and write us about your case. Our physicians have made these diseases a life study, and can help you by their advice; we make no charge for this service. All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence.
